

YORKSHIRE AFRICAN STUDIES NETWORK (YASN)
WORKSHOP ON GENDER AND SEXUALITY

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS, Thursday 14 JANUARY 2016

Grant Room 311 Michael Sadler Building, University of Leeds
http://www.leeds.ac.uk/downloads/download/9/campus_map_for_visitors

1015am Opening remarks

Shane Doyle (History, Leeds)

Session 1: 1030-1230 RHETORIC AND REPRESENTATION

Manel Zouabi (Centre for Women's Studies, York), Post-revolutionary Tunisia: sexualizing women-political activists in digital media

Aidan Kwame Ahaligah (Theology and Religious Studies, Leeds), Pentecostalization, Redeeming Africa and the Politics of Homosexuality in Ghana's Contemporary Public Sphere

Brendon Nicholls (English, Leeds), Ken Saro-Wiwa, Heteronormativity and Gender Politics

Lunch 1230-130pm

Session 2: 130-250pm VIOLENCE

Bev Orton (Criminology and Criminal Justice, Hull), So what's New?: Sex and sexuality in post-apartheid South Africa

Christopher Davey (JEFICAS, Bradford), Gender, Violence and Genocide in the First Congo War (1996-1997)

Coffee 250-310pm

Session 3: 310-430pm NORMS AND DISSONANCE

Jane Plastow (English, Leeds) and Katie McQuaid (Geography, Leeds), In search of the Frierean 'plenitude of the praxis' of action and reflection for women from Walukuba: thinking through an activist approach using theatre and ethnography

Will Jackson (History, Leeds), Queering the family in segregation-era South Africa

430pm Closing remarks

Adriaan van Klinken (Theology and Religious Studies, Leeds), New directions in the study of African sexuality

ALL WELCOME

CONTACT LUCAS ipiafric african-studies@leeds.ac.uk FOR MORE DETAILS.