

Applications Open for Book Reviewers

The Leeds African Studies Bulletin is moving to a new interactive, digital format to allow for swift online publication of research articles and book reviews which can be viewed around the world.

We are now accepting applications from individuals to review our existing catalogue of recently published books, with reviews to be published on our website. Please see the full list of books below. If there is a title you would like to review, please email up to three titles, listed in order of preference to African-studies@leeds.ac.uk with a brief summary on your relevant expertise to review these titles. Please note that titles will be allocated on a 'first come, first served' basis, and we would like to receive your review within 6 months. You may keep the book that you review.

Book reviews that we have previously published can be viewed in previous issues of the Leeds African Studies Bulletin which are available on our website:
